of defeated Germany.
"The spirit of Geneva"— meaning warm cooperation and friendship—was a term emerging from the July 1955 meeting in that Swiss city among President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin, Prime Minister Anthony Eden of Britain and Premier Edgar Faure of France.
But little actually was accomplished and a year later the Soviets militarily repressed an uprising in Hungary, bringing a return to icy relations between the two major powers.
Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev—who had accompanied Bulganin in 1955—met informally at the presidential retreat of Camp
David, Md., in September 1959.
Their talks were termed cordial and "the spirit of Camp David" was heralded as a step toward easing world tensions.
But a year later, in May 1960, plans for a Paris meeting between Khrushchev and Eisenhower broke up amid angry exchanges when the Soviet leader demanded U.S. apologies for using planes to spy on the Soviet Union. An American U-2 spy plane had been shot down by the Soviets a month earlier and its pilot captured.
The last U.S.-Soviet summit meeting before today's was in June 1961 in Vienna between Khrushchev and President John F. Kennedy. It gave the newly elected Kennedy a chance to size up his new adversary but little concrete was accomplished.
A crisis over Berlin followed within months and a year later came the Cuban missile crisis.

Three Killed
in Iowa,
Texan Sought

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa (AP) — Police searched today into the background of a man who they said apparently came to Iowa from Texas to rob a bank and wound up killing three persons who innocently got in his way while he was "casing" the countryside.
Held on a murder charge was a bald, 42-year-old man identified as Hubert B. McClelland of Beaumont, Tex., a parolee with a criminal record for nearly 20 years.
Authorities described as "senseless" the fatal shooting Wednesday night of a housewife and two farmers and the abduction of two children riding with the woman.
Mrs. Charles Schwab, 41, of Belle Plaine, was shot after her car was forced off a gravel road near Elberon and the gunman drove off with the children who had been riding with her.
Less than a mile down the road the man ran into a ditch.
He shot Leland Skoog, 55, a dairy farmer, and Skoog's son, Garith, 24, when they went to offer aid.
Mrs. Schwab's daughter, Christine, 11, and Christine's cousin, Julie Braksiek, 11, were in the trunk of the Skoog car when he surrendered meekly to police on the outskirts of Cedar Rapids, and asked for a cigarette. The children were unharmed.

10 Killed in Wreck, Five
in a Family

HARDEEVILLE, S.C. (AP)—
Ten persons, including five members of one family, were killed early today when their station wagon collided with an asphalt truck south of Hardeeville near the southern tip of South Carolina.
There were no survivors in the station wagon. All the victims were from Savannah, Ga., four miles south of the crash scene at the intersection of U.S.
17 and S.C. 170.
The victims included three small children, several teen-agers and three or four adults.
Sheriff J. T. Raymond Jr. of Jasper County, S.C., said the victims were identified as Juanita Loadholt, 18 months; Sharon Williams, 4; Barbara Ann Williams, 9; Henrietta Williams, 38; Charles Richards Jr., 27, driver of the station wagon;
Charles Richards Sr., age unknown; Willie Loadholt, age unknown; William Lee, age unknown; Bubber Morris Bennett, age unknown.
A woman was not identified immediately.
The truck driver, George Simmons Jr. of Hardeeville, was not injured. He told police he had loaded his vehicle with asphalt early this morning at Savannah.
The station wagon was so mangled that it was impossible to determine at first how many persons were in the vehicle.

Copters Hit
in Flight, 20 Killed

JACKSONVILLE, N.C. (AP) —
Two huge troop-carrying Marine helicopters collided in flight at the New River Marine Air Facility today and reports said at least 20 were killed and a dozen injured.
The helicopters, one a HU-1
and the other a CH-53A "Sea Stallion," crashed at the end of a runway in a wooded area.
The Sea Stallion was carrying Marine troopers on a routine training mission and was coming in for a landing, a base spokesman said. The other craft was practicing touch-and-go landings.
The spokesman said the second craft apparently rose from the runway and struck the other helicopter in its belly.
The dead were not identified, pending notification of relatives.
It was the worst collision in the history of the New River Facility, converted some years ago into a helicopter training base.
The facility is about four miles south of Jacksonville, home of the huge Camp Lejeune Marine station.

2 Arkansans
Are Charged With Rape

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Charges were filed against two Little Rock men here Thursday in connection with the rape of a Los Angeles, Calif., woman early Wednesday. Bud York, 29, was charged with rape and robbery, and Jerry Tim Redmond, 18, was charged with rape. A third man arrested in the case was released without being charged.
The woman, who had stopped to visit relatives in Jacksonville during a trip to Ohio, told police that she was raped in an abandoned sand pit of a road near the Arkansas River in North Little Rock.
The men later dropped her off in Jacksonville after beating her about the face and taking about $10 from her, the woman said.

SHOVER SPRINGS HD CLUB MEETS

On Tuesday, June 20 the Shover Springs 4-H Club had a meeting in the Community Building at Shover Springs. Nine members answered the roll called by the president, Lanette Arrington, in the absence of the secretary, Lanette Arrington and Sue Dillon led the group in singing "Red River Valley" and "O, Suzanna," accompanied by Linda Reece at the piano. The club decided to have two club projects on Saturday, July 1. First, there will be an ice cream supper, and then, club members will paint trash cans for the community.

At the June meeting Paula Poindexter gave the devotion, and Sue Dillon demonstrated making a bud vase. Linda Reece told of her recent trip to Washington, D. C., to the National 4-H Congress, and everyone enjoyed hearing about it.

Besides the club members, guests at the meeting were Mrs. E. O. Bright, Peggy Reece, and Dennis Arrington. Refreshments were served by the Arringtons.

TINA AMBASSADOR CLASS MEETS

The Tina Ambassador Class of the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church met Tuesday evening, June 20 in the home of Mrs. John Shirley, with Mrs. Charley Anderson and Mrs. Waddle Cunningham as co-hostess. After the opening prayer by Mrs. Clifton Booth, Mrs. Y. C. Coleman presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. Tom Duckett, Program Chairman introduced Mrs. Reese Chambliss as the guest speaker. Her topic "Letting Christ Have

First Place in our Lives"

A delicious plate of cookies, nuts, and punch served 12 and 1 guest.

Mrs. Alfred Bearden closed the meeting with a prayer.

Coming, Going

Mrs. T. L. Smith and Dennis Arturbury left for Salinas, Calif. to visit Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Smith.

Mrs. Riley Lewallen and Mrs. Velma Collier returned home Thursday from Hot Springs where they visited Oscar Brownings and the Johnny Carters.

Mr. and Mrs. David McKenzie, Mark and Brad, Little Rock, and Mrs. V. H. Nix and Betsy, Memphis, will all be weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. Jim McKenzie. The Nixes have been here several days.

Mrs. Dale Dunn and Mrs. Louis Sutton, Jr., both of Fayetteville, have returned home after getting Mrs. Sutton's three sons, who have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sutton, Sr.

Endowments Pour in for Young Nugent

By FRANCES LEWINE
AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Two-day-old Patrick Lyndon Nugent already is endowed with a U.S. Savings bond from his parents and a Hereford heifer from his grandfather, President Johnson.

The President also made it plain he is bestowing one of his Texas ranch properties — formerly the Lewis Ranch, a spread of several hundred acres — on his daughter Luci and her husband, Patrick J. Nugent, now that they have produced their first son and his first grandchild.

Luci already is heiress to about $500,000. Her father often has said he had two ranch properties set aside for his daughters, Luci and Lynda. But he never said outright that he had made them a gift of the properties.

At the White House Thursday, however, the President made public a telegram sent to Nugent expressing his happiness at the birth of their son and announcing "our best Hereford heifer is being curried for delivery to the Lewis-Nugent Ranch consigned to your 9-pound son."

That made it plain the Lewis ranch was to belong to the Nugents.

Johnson, kept busy with the most pressing of international concerns including a meeting with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin in New Jersey today, has yet to see his grandson.

But there was little question at Seton Hospital here that Johnson probably would get here by Sunday to see Luci's baby.

Luci's Roman Catholic parish priest, the Rev. Harold G. Zink, rector of St. Mary's Cathedral in Austin, said he tried to see Luci at the hospital Thursday but "she was preoccupied."

He said he wanted to discuss christening of the Nugent baby. Father Zink said the Nugents had not yet decided who would do the baptizing.

The third-floor hospital chapel was decorated Thursday with pink peonies—some of the scores of floral bouquets being sent to

Joins Local Extension Office Staff

CAROLE BRESLER

Carole Bresler, daughter of Mrs. Rose Marie Shirley of Hope, is employed as Junior Field Assistant in the Hempstead County Agricultural Extension office. Miss Bresler will be working for 30 days as Junior Field Assistant in an attempt to help close the gap between the theory in the classroom and the practical application in the field. She will be supervised by Dolores McBride, Extension Home Economist, and participating in learning experiences.

Extension Service offers this job to girls completing their junior year in college, majoring in Home Economics. Girls interested in being an Extension Home Economist have an opportunity to learn about the Extension program while employed during the summer.

Following the thirty days as Junior Field Assistant, Carole will continue to work in the Extension office with the college work-study program.

Miss Bresler graduated from Lewisville High School. She has attended the University of Arkansas and will be enrolled as a senior Home Economics major the fall semester. She is a member of the Pi Beta Phi Sorority and was active on the Razorback Annual Staff.

the President's daughter.

Luci asked a family friend to distribute some to other patients at Seton.

An elderly woman, her leg in a cast and traction, was among the delighted recipients of Luci's flowers. She got a bouquet of yellow roses to brighten her hospital room.

Everything still was going perfectly, with Luci in "high spirits" and up and walking about her hospital room, and little Patrick Lyndon reported crying lustily and progressing normally.

Mrs. Johnson, in an interview in the hospital parking lot, said she and the President were "just beginning to stand tentatively on the edge of finding out what fun this can be and what new furrows it will open up."

Asked who the new baby looked like, Mrs. Johnson said with a smile, "not a soul has said he looks like Lyndon." She said he probably was more like his father, Pat, because "what little hair he has is blond fuzz."

Nugent has short-cropped blond hair while his wife has shining black hair, now worn shoulder-length.

When it came to being called grandma, though, Mrs. Johnson admitted, "Frankly, I'm not very partial to the word."

"I'm looking forward to the experience," said the 54-year-old First Lady with a smile. "But I don't know that I like the name."

Visitor Takes In Art Museum

NEW YORK (AP) — Ludmila A. Gvishiani has visited the Metropolitan Museum of Art and taken in the view from the top of the Empire State Building.

The daughter of Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin continued her sightseeing in Manhattan Wednesday, apparently anxious to do as much as possible before her visit ends.

Television and Radio

By GENE HANDSAKER
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Like I keep telling them down at the office, there's no substitute for experience.

Thursday night launched the lengthy titled "The Dean Martin Summer Show Starring Your Host Vic Damone." Though brimming with bright young talent, its gayest moments came in a "Tonight"-style interview with George Jessel, 69.

"I've been in show business long enough to be governor of California 15 times," Jessel crowed. He recalled his reply when told he must be in his late 50s: "I've got ties older than that."

Regular brighteners on the 12-week variety series include leggy beauty Carol Lawrence and song better Gail Martin, Dean's 21-year-old daughter. Joining them and Damone on the opener were the team of Clair and McMahon, in a screaming-comedy bit, and The Curtain Calls, a talented, hard-working song-and-dance trio.

Another guest was professional golfer-singer Don Cherry, who isn't as pretty as Damone but sings a song with more warmth.

Conclusion on the two editions we've had of the Steve Allen comedy hour: The short sketches are funny; the long ones sag. This Wednesday Steve's wife Jayne Meadows, wearing curls like all the shavings in the carpenter shop, tried to sustain as mistress of ceremonies a spotty, tedious parody of a male beauty contest.

But the quickies—Steve emerging from a 100-year freeze, Steve as a magician creating a banana through reversed film—were a delight.

Elsewhere amid the reruns and junk were some other worthwhile items: CBS's in-depth study of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and NBC's stimulating documentary on "The Learning Process." Did those sixth-graders doing math outsmart you, too?

Upcoming—Tonight (all times Eastern Daylight): The third, final and most aptly titled of ABC's reports of a mod Briton's visit: "Twiggy—Why?" 8 p.m.

Saturday: National AAU track and field, Walker Cup golf, ABC's Wide World of Sports, Cleveland Open golf, ABC, Chicago White Sox vs. Minnesota Twins. Check local times.

Sunday: Abba Eban, Israeli foreign minister, on "Meet the Press," NBC, 4:30 p.m. Jordan's King Hussein on "Issues and Answers," ABC, 3 p.m. "The Warren Report," a one-hour CBS news inquiry, 10 p.m.

The latter continues at the same hour Monday through Wednesday nights, examining questions raised by critics of the Warren report. Interviewers will include Dr. Malcolm O. Perry, Dallas surgeon who took charge of treatment when President John F. Kennedy was brought to Parkland Memorial Hospital fatally shot.

THE EASY WAY TO STOP WIFE'S "HARPING"

Dear Helen: Reading those letters by the super-husbands, I discover I have a long ways to go before I'm perfect, according to my wife - who read them too.

So what does a lesser man do when his "yelp-mate" reminds him at least three times a day, in spades, that he could pattern after "the men who write to Helen"?

You started this, kiddo, so give me a gentlemanly answer in ten words or less that will knock off my wife's nagging. She liked me fine, before, —SOMEWHAT IMPERFECT

Dear S.I.: How about, "Don't make like an angle and harp!" —H

Dear Helen: I write this hoping it will be read by perhaps one mother of a teen she feels is "rebellious, disrespectful" and all other adjectives I've heard used against them too often.

I remember how my Sandy always confided in me and how I enjoyed listening to her —before she turned 14. But then things started going wrong. She wanted to wear makeup to "look good" for Greg, or Tom, or whoever, but I said she was too young. I became frightened at all I had heard about every party, every date. I knew she wasn't and isn't a rough delinquent, but "a mother can't be too careful."

And then Tim! A friend told me was wild, so I forbid Sandy's riding home from school with him. "You know those teen drivers —besides things can happen." She insisted he was nice and I shouldn't believe hearsay, but I wouldn't meet him. I warned ranted, refused to let her go out with him, grounded for being rebellious. I was only "guiding" her, Helen — what does a girl of 16 know?

Her grades fell from "A" to low "B". I lectured about them, about her dress, her actions, attitude, friends. She cried and asked for a chance, but I knew I was right.

I had always been so proud of her achievements. Now I was obsessed with fear. I nagged and pressured her.

Helen, if I'd have given her the chance to prove she could grow up wisely, she would still have been just as wonderful, and I would still have her.

You see, she ran away with Tim, leaving a note saying she couldn't stand it when I didn't have confidence in her decisions, when I wouldn't let her breathe and when I didn't give her credit to judge right from wrong. It was too much for her, and Tim was the only escape.

more nights —to show me. Well, things have calmed down and he's given me another chance, but I've concluded I need to make more of my own life so I won't be dependent entirely on him. I've often wanted to be part of the theatrical world. Maybe this can be my way out, and his too. Helen, tell me how to crash the scenes. —THE LEANER

Dear Leaner: Contact the Little Theater group in your town and they'll give you a try-out. But be sure you're doing this for the right reasons—not "to get even." If you're still smoldering underneath, settle the "nights out" business with your husband amicably before you tootle off on excursions of your own. Otherwise, you might as well kiss your marriage goodbye. —H

Lana Turner Back From Vietnam

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Lana Turner has returned from a visit to Vietnam where she did not perform but "talked to the men in the hospitals and in the fields."

"They would ask me about the war and the demonstrators and I was happy to say they were still in the minority," she said.

On the third day of her scheduled three-week tour the blonde actress sprained her left ankle. She plans to return sometime in July when the injury heals.

Aaron Takes Mad Out on Rest of Loop

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
It's a good thing Hank Aaron isn't mad at San Francisco. There's no telling what kind of damage he'd do to the Giants then.

Aaron, who was involved in a squabble with teammate Rico Carty as Atlanta flew west Sunday night, continues to take it out on the rest of the league.

He walloped a two-run homer in the eighth inning lifting the Braves to a 6-4 victory in the second game and a doubleheader sweep against the Giants Thursday. He doubled home Atlanta's first run in the 2-1 first game triumph.

In the only other National League game played Thursday, St. Louis beat Los Angeles 7-2. New York's game at Philadelphia was postponed by rain, and the other teams were not scheduled.

In the American League, Detroit whipped Minnesota 5-2 and California bounced Cleveland 7-0. Kansas City at Baltimore and Boston at New York were rained out. Washington and Chicago had a day off.

Aaron's 18th home run, which won the second game for the Braves, gave the Atlanta slugger the National League homer lead.

He drove in three runs in the doubleheader with three hits in seven trips and raised his batting average to .322.

In the first game, Aaron doubled home winning pitcher Phil Niekro in the third inning. An inning later, Woody Woodward's double drove in Denis Menke with Atlanta's second run.

That was enough to beat Gaylord Perry, who struck out 10, but lost his eighth game. Niekro, sprung from the bullpen, hurled a six-hitter and won his third game.

Aaron broke open the nightcap in the eighth against Frank Linzy with Tito Francona on base. Mack Jones also had a two-run shot for the Braves.

Willie Mays' 10th home run of the season and 552nd career shot accounted for the Giants' only run in the opener. Claude Raymond, who got credit for the second game victory, got Mays pinch hitting, to smack into a rally-ending double play in the nightcap.

St. Louis scored three times in the sixth inning to go ahead of the Dodgers. Dal Maxvill's scoring single drove home the tie-breaking run as the Cardinals beat Los Angeles for the sixth straight time.

Steve Carlton limited the Dodgers to six hits including run-scoring singles by Ron Fairly and Wes Parker.

French Horse Finding U.S. Profitable

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Henri Levesque of France is finding his trips to the United States with Roquepine very profitable.

The 6-year-old French mare made her fourth start in this country in the $50,000 Gotham Trot at Yonkers Raceway Thursday night and had no trouble posting her third victory to run her U. S. earnings to $112,500.

Last year she made three appearances on American soil, winning the $100,000 United Nations Trot at Yonkers and the Challenge Cup at Roosevelt Raceway after finishing second in the rich Roosevelt International. She'll have a chance to repeat in the United Nations next Thursday.

Although driver Jean-Rene Gougeon said the great French trotter didn't like the wet track, she had no trouble handling her opposition after being forced to race on the outside for almost one mile of the 1 1/4 miles.

Italian-owned Dashing Rodney, driven by West German ace Gerhard Kruger kept her there, but that didn't worry Gougeon.

"I could have taken the lead earlier," said Gougeon after sending Roquepine across the finish line 2 1/2 lengths in front of Style Setter, with Canada's Fresh Yankee another 1 1/2 lengths back in third place.

Little Guys Made Good in Basketball

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Little Guys made good in basketball for the United States in Spain in contrast to their bigger contemporaries in Uruguay.

The Little Guys, all under 5-foot-11, won the five-nation international tournament at Barcelona by defeating Spain 76-68 in Thursday's final of the round-robin.

Mike Carson, 5-9 of San Francisco State threw in 19 points to lead the Americans to their third straight victory after an opening defeat by Brazil.

Bill Suter, 5-8, of Gonzaga, and Henry Logan, 5-10, Western Carolina, each got 16. Robert Lewis, 5-9, South Carolina State, added eight and Gerald Williams, 5-9 of Butler University, six.

The U.S. Victory in this tournament compared to the defeat of a taller American team in the World Amateur Championship at Montevideo June 11. Russia won the title by beating Yugoslavia 71-59 after Brazil had upset the United States 80-71.

It was a busy June day in a sport which is played primarily in the winter.

Jay Miller, 6-5, who played with the U.S. team in Montevideo after being selected from the champion AAU Akron Good-years, turned pro. The former Notre Dame star signed to play with the St. Louis Hawks of the National Basketball Association.

Three other former college stars also signed pro contracts. Clem Haskins, 6-3 All-American from Western Kentucky, signed with the Chicago Bulls of the NBA.

Walt Frazier, 6-4 little All-America who led Southern Illinois to the NIT championship last March, signed with the New York Knicks of the NBA for a reported $90,000 over three years.

Gary Keller, 6-10 star of the University of Florida, signed with Denver in the new American Basketball Association which will start play next season.

AAU Stars Generate Excitement

By FRANK O'REILLY
BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — In tonight's national AAU track and field competition, Jim Ryun, Tommie Smith, Bob Seagren and Randy Matson are likely to generate the excitement if not the heat that followed Jimmy Hines' narrow victory over Charlie Greene in their gripping 100-yard dash.

Hines, the Texas Southern flash, nipped Greene of Nebraska at the tape in 9.3 seconds Thursday night in the most exciting race of the opening session of these annual championships.

But Greene, the defending champion, was unconvinced. From behind his sunglasses the

Golf Greats Surprised by Yates

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer
CLEVELAND (AP) — Two of golfdom's greats, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, were surprised by first-round developments in the $103,500 Cleveland Open.

"Who?" asked Palmer, after he was told that Wayne Yates was the 18-hole leader.

The popular Pennsylvania pro admitted he did not know who Yates was after the 25-year-old Atlanta performer carded a four-under-par 66 in Thursday's first round.

That gave Yates, in his second year as a tour regular, a one-stroke edge over Palmer, veteran Dan Sikes and young Dick Lotz.

But Palmer figures the scores are going to get better on the par 70, 6,611-yard Aurora Country Club layout.

"Somebody will shoot 65 before the week is over . . . maybe even 60," Palmer, the tour's leading money-winner, predicted.

Nicklaus, who played erratically and admitted he was bothered by the wet course, disagreed.

"Sure someone can shoot 60, if he quits at 14," the power hitter from Columbus, Ohio, quipped.

Nicklaus, who won the U.S. Open last weekend with a brilliant display of precision golf, staggered home with a 72 Thursday in a round that included five bogeys.

And Jack evidently was surprised that two dozen players broke par.

"I think the scores are as low as they are going to get," Nicklaus said. "I thought after practicing nine holes Wednesday that the winning score would be 280. But, obviously, 280 won't win it."

Yates, who rang up six birdies and two bogeys, has earned only $3,781 this year.

"My whole game was in good shape," said the rangy Georgian, whose best previous effort was a tie for 11th in the Memphis Open.

Two strokes back of the leader going into today's second round were Dow Finsterwald, Bob Stanton, Lionel Hebert, Raymond Floyd, Gardner Dickinson, Bob Charles and former U. S. Open king Ken Venturi.

The veteran Finsterwald, a PGA winner in 1958, was four under par going into the final two holes but took bogeys on both.

Masters champion Gay Brewer was in contention with 69, and Billy Casper stood at 70. R.H. Sikes, the defending titlist, carded a 73 while Julius Boros, second leading money winner on the tour, skied to a 74 after suffering a triple bogey 7 on the 15th hole.

The field of 141 pros and two amateurs was to be trimmed to the low 70 scorers and ties after today's round.

outspoken speedster asked: "What do you have to do to win? It shouldn't have even gone to a photo, I beat him at the tape."

Hines, who beat Greene last month at Modesto, Calif., setting up their confrontation, saw it differently. "I got a good start," he said, "and I thought I won in the last few yards."

Viewing the photo, Greene conceded that the result could have been a tie, but then he protested that Hines had broken from the starting blocks before the gun.

The verdict stood, however, and Hines now faces the challenge of Tommie Smith in tonight's 200. Smith the San Jose State sensation, holds the world record of 20.0 for the distance, but Hines beat him three weeks ago in Los Angeles.

Ryun coasted to a 4:07.5 clocking in a mile semifinal and the Kansas sophomore is an overwhelming favorite against veteran Jim Grelle, Oregon's twosome of Roscoe Divine and Dave Wilborn, and Martin Li-quori, of the Essex, N.J., Catholic High school.

Kaline Out of Slump With Homers

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
It took Al Kaline just one day to rediscover the thrill of hitting a home run in a winning or losing cause. And it felt so good, the Tiger slugger did it twice.

Kaline broke out on a hitting slump — he slipped to third in American League batting while it was going on — with a home run in Wednesday night's contest against Minnesota. But the game was called after eight innings because of rain and the teams tied 5-5.

But Thursday, with rain still plaguing much of the league's schedule, the Tigers and Twins managed to complete their contest, with Kaline's two homers, which give him 15 for the season, powering Detroit to a 5-2 victory.

In the only other American League game not rained out, California shut out Cleveland 7-0. Victims of the weather were Kansas City at Baltimore and Boston at New York.

In the National League, Atlanta won a doubleheader from San Francisco 2-1 and 6-4 and St. Louis beat Los Angeles 7-2. New York at Philadelphia was rained out.

In all, Kaline drove in three of the Tigers' runs, giving him 51 for the season and making him third among the league leaders. "It felt," he said succinctly, "good."

Norm Cash also homered for Detroit. Joe Sparrna gave the second-place Tigers something else to grin about, turning in a four-hit performance and picking up his seventh triumph of the season against just one defeat.

A double by losing pitcher Jim Kaat and a sacrifice fly by Zoilo Versalles accounted for the Minnesota runs.

Jim McGlothlin of the Angels turned in the pitching gem of the evening, allowing the Indians only three singles as he rode a powerful California attack to his seventh victory of the season. He has lost one.

A two-run homer by John Werhas and a solo shot by Paul Schaf provided the muscle in the early innings, and the Angels got two runs in both the eighth and ninth innings to rub it in.

Pro Teams to Get Look at New Talent

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The pro football clubs will get their first preview of the new talent crop in the All-America game at Atlanta Saturday night, July 8. A total of 28 National Football League rookies and 22 from the American Football League have been lined up to compete in the game sponsored by the American Football Coaches Association.

The East team, coached by Tom Cahill of Army, will have seven first-round draft choices on the roster in addition to Nick Eddy, the Notre Dame halfback picked by the Detroit Lions as a future last year.

The first-round picks are end Gene Washington of Michigan State by Minnesota, quarterback Steve Spurrier of Florida by San Francisco, quarterback Bob Griese of Purdue by the Miami Dolphins, halfback Floyd Little of Syracuse by Denver, defensive back George Webster of Michigan State by Houston, center Bob Hyland of Boston College by Green Bay and defensive back J. C. Charles of Purdue by Boston.

The West squad, coached by Bob Devaney of Nebraska, also will have seven first-round picks, including running backs Ray McDonald of Idaho by Washington, Mel Farr of UCLA by Detroit, Harry Wilson of Nebraska by Philadelphia, end Dave Williams of Washington by St. Louis, tackles Loyd Phillips of Arkansas by Chicago and Gene Upshaw of Texas A&I by Oakland and defensive back Johnny Pitts of Arizona State by Buffalo.

By HARRY KING
ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER
CHEROKEE VILLAGE, Ark. — Frank Broyles of the University of Arkansas got in the driver's seat early and kept the pressure on Thursday as he vanquished 21 other coaches in the third annual Coaches Invitational Golf Tournament here.

Broyles shot a fine three-over par 75 for a two-round total of 153. He finished eight strokes in front of Pepper Rodgers, head football coach at the University of Kansas, who had a second-round 81 for a 161 total.

Broyles, Darrell Royal of the University of Texas and Glenn Dobbs of the University of Tulsa were the first-round leaders at 78.

Neither Royal nor Dobbs ever got going in the second round, and both finished at 166. Tom Harp of Duke was third with an 85-79-164. Doug Dickey of the University of Tennessee finished fourth at 165.

Harry King of the Associated Press at Little Rock won the sportswriters division with a 161.

NEW CONCEPT in urban transportation may have been born with the first flight recently of the Budd Skylounge, a buslike module capable of carrying 23 persons. The Skylounge would pick up airline passengers and their luggage at various points in the center of cities and then be flown by helicopter to airports. Other possible applications include such uses as hospital components, construction maintenance shops, X-ray centers and portable disaster units.

NEW STYLE in outer space wear unveiled at the Houston, Tex., Manned Spacecraft Center will be worn by astronauts on the upcoming three-man Apollo missions. The Extravehicular Mobility Unit, EMU for short, features "thermal meteoroid" jacket, trousers and gloves and lunar boots. At left, extravehicular sun-glare visor covers model's face. Photo at right shows visor raised and the Portable Life Support System (PLSS) backpack.

Winds of the world are called by many names, such as cyclone, typhoon, monsoon, tornado, sirocco, chinook, cock-eyed bob or williwaw.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Precautions Can Avoid Picnic Food Poisoning

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The aftermath of many a picnic, whether it be in the woods or in your own back yard, is food poisoning. The trouble often results from preparing food with hands that have cuts infected with staphylococci, the common pus former. This germ may also enter the food if the hands preparing it have touched the nose. As the germs multiply in the food, they produce a poison that causes vomiting and diarrhea. If you let the contaminated food stand for as little as two hours at room temperature a heavy concentration of the poison will result. Once the poison has formed it cannot be destroyed by refrigeration. Thorough cooking will destroy the staphylococci but not their poisons.

The best way to prevent a sad ending to your picnic is to omit perishable foods from the menu. Bring potato chips instead of potato salad, frankfurters instead of chicken salad and cookies or raw fruit instead of custards, cream puffs or eclairs. Canned foods don't require refrigeration but they should not be opened until they are to be served.

Q—Can communicable disease be transmitted through the use of the common communion chalice? Can dishes be made free of germs by hand-washing in a public eating place?

A—Tuberculosis and other communicable diseases can be transmitted by the use of any common drinking vessel. Manual washing of eating utensils is permitted in public restaurants and bars provided a three-compartment sink is used. The temperature of the wash water in the first compartment must be maintained at 110 to 115 degrees. The second compartment contains clear rinse water. The third compartment must contain a disinfectant rinse and the dishes must be held in this rinse for at least two minutes.

Q—A lead bullet lodged in my leg 30 years ago and is still there. Could it cause lead poisoning?

A—A lead bullet lodged in the abdomen, the pleural cavity or a joint may cause a mild lead poisoning but if it is lodged in muscle or bone this is not likely. In case of doubt your doctor can make tests for lead poisoning.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Williams Class in 50th Reunion

By SID MOODY
WILLIMSTOWN, Mass. (AP) — They came to town as members of the Class of 1917. They left members of the Old Guard.
There are 73 of them, survivors of the 125 that graduated from Williams College in 1917. Then they were the youth of tomorrow. Now tomorrow has gone.
That tomorrow that has become yesterday brought with it World War I, prohibition, the depression, World War II, the nuclear age, the jet age, the cold war. A half century of unparalleled change. And now 32 of them were back for their 50th reunion at Williams College.
They held the place of honor at the head of the alumni parade last weekend. They received a thundering ovation in Chapin Hall when Stan Phillips announced their class gift of $514,000 to the school.
But no writers or poll takers came around to ask what they thought of Vietnam, or pot, or automation, as they have of members of the Class of 1967. The day of 1917 is done, and America is a land of tomorrow.
But 1917 is worthy of note if for no other fact that in its too-quick half century it has survived. The years have marked it, but it, in its small way, has marked the years.
At Williams 1917 produced no household names. They were lawyers, businessmen, doctors, ministers, educators who did the nation's work in their turn and now have passed it on to others. And that is no trivial accomplishment, considering the world they were born in is now unrecognizable.
My father's father had crossed the country in a stage coach as a boy. My father, a member of '17—I am class of '50—had flown by jet around the world. "Norm, do you think the plane is here to stay?" he asked a classmate.
For 1917 was born in gas-lit homes where cars were unknown, and now they drove air-conditioned automobiles. After lunch Saturday several of them watched the National Open on television and fretted when a thunderstorm knocked out the transmission, none remarking on the electronic miracle that made their frustration possible.

IT&T, ABC Merger Is Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission has for the second time approved the merger of American Broadcasting Companies Inc. into International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. — the biggest merger in broadcasting history.
But the Justice Department has not decided yet whether to take its fight against the consolidation into court.
FCC Commissioners Robert E. Lee, Lee Loevinger, James J. Wadsworth and Chairman Rosel H. Hyde formed the majority in the same 4-3 lineup that prevailed when the FCC first approved the $2.8-billion merger Dec. 21.
The majority said IT&T's strong financial backing would enable ABC to better compete with the other two major networks — National Broadcasting Co. and Columbia Broadcasting System.
The network says it will expand its color programming and build new studios as part of a $141-million program.
The new FCC decision was accompanied by a strongly worded 138-page minority opinion that accused some IT&T and ABC officials and witnesses of both companies of lack of candor and misrepresentations during their testimony at recent FCC hearings on the merger.
The minority also charged IT&T and ABC officials with "overbearing and presumptuous conduct toward the press" during the hearing and with trying "to distort and pervert the media in their reporting of these proceedings."
The commission earlier this spring agreed to the rehearing on the merger to give the Justice Department a further chance to present its opposition.
The two companies now have agreed to hold off completion of their merger for 30 days to give the department time to decide whether it will go to court to block it.
The FCC has jurisdiction in the case because ABC wishes to transfer ownership of its 17 radio and television stations to IT&T.
The Justice Department claimed the merger would harm the integrity of ABC's network news operation.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A group of film figures, headed by UCLA's Robert Vaughn, have prepared a special welcome for President Johnson's visit to Los Angeles today.
Vaughn, who combats the secret agency THRUSH as Napoleon Solo each Friday night, has assumed leadership of an organization called Dissenting Democrats. Their aim: to oppose the administration's policy in Vietnam.
The Dissenting Democrats have taken a two-page advertisement in the Los Angeles Times today to coincide with the President's visit. The group aimed for 5,000 signatures to the ad and said it had 6,500 by deadline time.
The broadside notifies President Johnson that as of today the undersigned, "registered Democrats, who helped elect you in 1964, are disassociating ourselves from you and your administration because of your conduct of the war in Vietnam."
The ad avers: "Your administration threatens us daily with the prospect of an all-out confrontation with Red China and inevitably with the Soviet Union, leading us inexorably toward a thermonuclear holocaust."
The statement ends with the upper-case notification: "Mr. President, we advise you and those on every level of government that, from this day on, our campaign funds, our energies and our votes go to those and only those political figures who work for an end to the war in Vietnam."
What effect, if any, the ad will have is a matter of conjecture. But it reflects a new boldness in political dissent that has not been seen in Hollywood since before the McCarthy era.
During the wartime and post-war period, film figures often lent their names to causes that went counter to majority opinion. The congressional investigations of the 1950s, followed by industry black lists, put an end to political activism in Hollywood.
Vietnam has changed that. Most notable of the movieland doves is Vaughn, who has become a pal of Sen. Wayne Morse and Robert F. Kennedy and is much in demand as a speaker at universities throughout the land. Despite his stand against the Vietnam war, he appears not to have endangered his position as star of the popular series "The Man From U.N.C.L.E."

Violence by Negroes Dooms Rights Issues

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Last year President Johnson's civil rights program was massacred in Congress and the one he asked for this year looks headed for the same fate. The reasons are about the same because nothing much has changed.
Negro violence is one.
After the House passed Johnson's civil rights bill in 1966, the Senate killed it with a filibuster. And Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Democratic majority leader, indicated why.
He mentioned "marches, shootings and inflammatory speeches" and said "there is no place for mob mentality and its deliberate stimulation." Already this year there have been riots, shootings and inflammatory speeches before Congress got down to work on Johnson's 1967 program.
Johnson has been conscious of the effect of street violence on the Senate, which has been apathetic about civil rights ever since it passed the 1965 act.
When he offered this year's proposals in a special message Feb. 15 Johnson, noting the 1966 riots' chilling effect in the Capitol, sounded pretty much like Mansfield.
"Lawlessness," he said, "cannot be tolerated in a nation whose very existence depends upon respect for the law." As an antidote he suggested creating "conditions for public order based upon equal justice."
Riots weren't the only deadening effect last year. It was an election year and by the time the bill came up in the Senate the members were anxious to get home. And there was the influence of antagonistic, individual senators.
This was particularly true of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, leader of the Senate Republicans. He gaged totally on the open housing section of the bill.
This section was intended to prevent discrimination against Negroes in the sale and rental of housing even though its reach was limited since it would have banned discrimination in only about 40 per cent of the nation's housing units.
Dirksen called it unconstitutional, an invasion of private rights — an argument which had a lot of echoes around the country, although one Negro leader, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., called Dirksen a hypocrite.
Another rigid antagonist last year was the chairman of the Senate's powerful Judiciary Committee, Sen. James O. Eastland, a Mississippi Democrat. He has been against civil rights legislation all the way.
He is against this year's bill, too, predicting it will meet the same end as last year's. And Mansfield says he doesn't see much difference between the 1966 and 1967 bills.
The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People this year, as in the past, has worked zealously to get new legislation on the books but some of the senators most sympathetic to its efforts think the outlook is dim.
Perhaps some sections of what Johnson asked for may get through, but there seems little reason at this moment to think so. He offered a seven-point program whose open housing section went further than his 1966 suggestion.
He asked for legislation which would wipe out housing discrimination altogether by 1969.
These are his other six points:
— Strengthen present laws against interference with civil rights workers and others.
— Do the same with state judges.
— Authorize the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to issue enforceable cease-and-desist orders against racial discrimination.
— Strengthen the 1964 Civil Rights Act ban on discrimination in hiring, promotion of workers and membership practices of labor unions.
— Extend the life of the Civil Rights Commission another five years.
— Put more money into the Community Relations Service which tries to settle community disputes before they erupt into riots.

The world is governed more by appearances than by realities, so that it is fully as necessary as to know something as to know it.—Daniel Webster, American statesman.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of our fathers, who put such a thing as this into the heart of the king, to beautify the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem.—Ezra 7:27.

The rise in personal income during 1967 is expected to be about $35 billion, less than the $45 billion during 1966 but still producing the biggest consumer market in history.

Convict Did Not Know of Petition

TUCKER PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — A federal District Court petition seeking relief from "intolerable prison conditions" may have been filed in his name, but it was done without his knowledge, a Tucker Prison inmate said here Thursday.
Alfred Sturgeon, 21, of Enola (Faulkner County), told a Pine Bluff Commercial Reporter that his first knowledge that the petition referred to prison conditions came from other inmates, who heard it on radio and television.
The petition, filed June 12 James E. Sock of Enola, who was listed as "attorney in fact" charged that homosexual activity and robbery were prevalent here and that Sturgeon had been forced to commit an unnatural sex act.
"Them other boys (inmates) was telling me about it," Sturgeon said. "They let me read that piece that was in the paper. It said, 'Mr. Alfred Sturgeon attacked by homosexuals.' I didn't even know it went through this court or nothin'."
Sturgeon, who is serving a three-year sentence, said he was under the impression the petition was for a rehearing of his April 18th robbery conviction in Pulaski County, and that it contained no references to prison conditions.
He signed a four-page document he said, "but it didn't say nothin' about them homosexuals."
Shock, who said he held a law degree but was not a member of the Arkansas Bar Association, said Sturgeon's statements were a "surprise."
"It's doubtful that he would understand all the ramifications of this petition," he said. "You probably wouldn't, not being a student of law."
Shock apparently listed himself as "attorney in fact" because as a non-member of the Bar, he cannot legally represent clients for fees.
Sturgeon said Shock had visited him at the prison, apparently at the request of his parents, and had discussed prison conditions with him.
"He asked me about these homosexuals," Sturgeon said. "He said, 'It is goin' on, ain't it?' I said, 'Yes, it is, but what other people does is none of my business.' So, the first thing I know, well, it was over the radio, TV and newspapers and everything else."
Shock amended his original petition Monday to ask the court to provide protection for Sturgeon. The amendment said Sturgeon's life was in danger, and that Sturgeon had written a letter to his mother saying: "I may not make it out alive, the way things is looking now, tonight."
"I don't remember writing nothing like that," Sturgeon said Thursday. "I'm going to write Momma and ask her to bring that letter to me."
Sturgeon was imprisoned at Cummins Prison Farm April 18 and was transferred here May 18. He said he asked for the transfer because of more liberal visiting privileges here.
He was forced to commit a homosexual act "two or three days" after he got here, he said, but didn't report the incident until May 23, when former Security Officer Herman Schneider heard a rumor of it and questioned him.
Sturgeon said homosexuality existed at both prison farms, but that Cummins inmates hadn't bothered him after he told them: "Boys, I don't play that game."
Sturgeon said two inmates awakened him about midnight Tuesday beating him, but that he thought the petition had provoked the attack.
